GIVES TOBACCO CROP FAVORABLE REPORT

(The Business Review)

From Kentucky, where the principal crop is tobacco, we get a very favorable report.

The principal item of interest just at this time is that the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association has just made a sale of about 54 million pounds of tobacco to one of the large manufacturers. This is said to be the largest sale to a single firm in the history of the industry. It is understood that this practically cleans up the holdings of the Association and leaves it in splendid shape to handle the oncoming crop. This sale will bring the time of the final payment to the growers for the 1921 crop much nearer and this no doubt will strengthen the agricultural situation in this territory materially as well as to offer some stimulus to business in other lines. Information regarding the prices obtained for the tobacco included in the sale has not been given out, but it is stated that it was sold on the basis of the Association grades and prices, so the prices, no doubt, will be found to be satisfactory.

The Burley crop of 1922 is going to be smaller than anticipated earlier in the season because of the dry summer, and on that account, the coming crop no doubt will bring favorable prices.

The Burley Association now has approximately 70 thousand members as compared to about 55 thousand last year, showing that a large number of additional members have been obtained this year. The sale of the tobacco held by the Association will, no doubt, mean that other growers will be encouraged to become members. The organization drive for a similar association in the dark district of Western Kentucky will be continued until October 28, and there does not seem to be any doubt but that more than the required sign-up will be obtained by that date.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 12

JESUS THE GREAT TEACHER

LESSON TEXT—Luke 6:20-49.

GOLDEN TEXT—As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.—Luke 6:31.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 5:1-13; John 2:2; 6:58; 7:46; Col. 2:3.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Teaching Us to Love Everybody.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Living by the Golden Rule.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Golden Rule in Everyday Life.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Teaching Us How to Live Together.

1. Characteristics of the Subjects of the Kingdom (vv. 20-26).

Only those who are subjects of the Kingdom know what blessedness is. The spiritual experience of the subjects of the Kingdom are marked by the following steps:

1. Poverty of Spirit (v. 20). This means consciousness of one's lost condition and worthlessness. It is spiritual bankruptcy. It means to come to the end of self and to show sorrow for sins.

2. Hunger for Righteousness (v. 21). The one who has come to know his poverty desires the true righteousness of Christ.

3. Weeping Because of His Lack (v. 21). This is the godly sorrow which worketh repentance (II Cor. 7:10). Those who thus sorrow are assured that they shall laugh.

4. Treatment Which the Subjects of the Kingdom May Expect (vv. 22, 23). When the subjects of the Kingdom become like the King they incite the hatred, contempt and persecution of the world. Those who pass through this for Christ's sake should rejoice, for there is great reward laid up for them.

11. The Governing Principles of the Kingdom (vv. 27-38).

1. Love Your Enemies (v. 27). To love friends is easy, but to love enemies is only possible to those who have been made partakers of the divine nature.

2. Do Good to Those Who Hate You (v. 27). Love acts according to its own nature. Enmity only stimulates love to act in harmony with its own laws.

3. Bless Them That Curse You (v. 28). Injury by words is hard to let go unchallenged.

4. Pray for Them Which Despitefully Use You (v. 28). Christ's own example is the best commentary on this precept (Luke 23:34; cf. Acts 7:60).

5. Patiently Endure Wrong and Injury (v. 29). The Christian is not to bristle up in defense of his rights, but rather to suffer insult, injury and even loss. This should not be pressed so far that evildoers can go unchecked. It expresses the law which should govern individual action.

6. Give to Every One That Askest (v. 30). This does not necessarily mean that the thing asked for should be given. We should give to every one that asketh, but not necessarily the thing asked for.

7. Do as You Wish to Be Done By (v. 31). This is called the "Golden Rule." If men were to live by this rule the labor problem would be solved. An end would be put to war. International relations would be peacefully adjusted and all profiteering in business would end.

8. Be Merciful (v. 36). The mercy of the Heavenly Father is the grand example.

9. Censorious Judgment Condemned (v. 37). We should not seek out the evil in others for our satisfaction.

10. Danger of Following False Teachers (v. 39). The one who does not know God and the way to heaven will lead others to ruin. Happily, we have the Scriptures, and the Holy Spirit is ready to make their meaning known, so there is no excuse.

11. Those Who Reprove Others Should Strive to Live Blameless Lives (vv. 41-46). It is easy to see others' faults, but hard to see our own.

12. The Sin of Profession Without Fruits (v. 46). The one who professes a life and fellowship with God should practice the principles which reveal the nature of God.

III. The Judgment to Be Applied to the Subjects of the Kingdom (vv. 47-49).

1. The one who hears and does the sayings of Christ the King shall be as secure as the house built upon the solid rock. The storms of the judgment cannot destroy him, for the Rock of Ages is immovable.

2. The one who hears and does not the sayings of Christ shall be overwhelmed in the judgment and go down to utter ruin and destruction.

The Dangerous Lie.

Every lie, great or small, is the brink of a precipice, the depth of which nothing but omniscience can fathom.—C. Reade.

Fright.

A timid person is frightened before a danger; a coward during the time; and a courageous person afterward.—Richter.

The Christian.

A Christian is God Almighty's gentleman.—J. C. Hare.

Are you among these thousands?

THOUSANDS of people keep on trying, year after year, to build health from food that has been robbed of certain elements required for perfect nutrition.

If your food doesn't contain the mineral properties that go to build up nerve, tooth and bone structure, there is no other means by which you can get these vital elements.

This is one reason why so many well-informed people eat Grape-Nuts

Get a package of Grape-Nuts from your grocer today, and give the family a help to health.
